

Original Article

Importance of Education and Skill Development: A Need for Better Employment Opportunities

Sagar Prakash Kasbe

Research Scholar, Department Of Economics, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedker
Marathwada University, Chhatrapati Sambhaji Nagar

Manuscript ID:
IBMIIRJ -2025-021025

Submitted: 10 Sept. 2025

Revised: 15 Sept. 2025

Accepted: 15 Oct. 2025

Published: 31 Oct. 2025

ISSN: 3065-7857

Volume-2

Issue-10

Pp. 118-120

October 2025

Correspondence Address:

Sagar Prakash Kasbe
Research Scholar, Department Of Economics, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedker
Marathwada University, Chhatrapati
Sambhaji Nagar
Email: sagarkasbe78@gmail.com

Quick Response Code:

Web: <https://ibrj.us>

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.17621144

DOI Link:

<https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.17621144>

Creative Commons

Abstract

Employment Is a Significant and Essential Feature for Economic Growth and Development which leads to nation progress. Education provides knowledge, values, intellectual while skill development provides talent, brilliance, innovations together both provides better employability, innovation which leads to sustainable economic growth also continuous technological advancement leads to lifelong learning. This paper focus on importance of education and skill development and their role in reducing poverty, enhancing employment, growth in social inclusion, it also explained challenges for its implementations.

Data and Research Methodology: The Study is a Descriptive Method. The Secondary Data were collected from different sources such as government reports, books, magazines, articles and websites.

Keywords: Employment, Education, Skill Development.

Introduction

Education and Skills changes people lives and the economic productivity. Better educated and Skilled person gets good opportunities good employment that enhance their wellbeing and skills has great impact on social behavior and interactions, so they have bright future than the less educated and less skilled person as they get low income. Skill and knowledge are key factor for economic growth and social development in society. Good education and Skills unlocks the equal opportunity for disadvantaged and underprivileged groups of society that can be skilled, they can get equal access to education, training, and work. India has becoming 'Knowledge Economy' that has made focus on advanced skills also that created relevant emerging economic environment skilled which are very much important for employment opportunities in today's scenario because todays employment seeks youths with good academic knowledge and also practical skills. Education gives knowledge, Skill development gives practical ability that together it gives personal success and national progress and hence it creates better employment opportunities that leads to Economic Growth and Development.

Objectives:

1. To develop intellectual, emotional, social enhancement by creating Holistic Growth this leads to better employment.
2. To make Economic Development by creating skilled workforce that innovates and enhances the productivity.
3. It helps in promoting self-reliance, confidence and decision making capacity that makes youths Empowerment.
4. To promotes Employment Opportunities by making better jobs with higher income and benefits.
5. To make Educated and Skilled youths that help in reduce poverty. This leads to Improved Quality of Life.
6. It helps in Economic Growth and Personal Development through Education and Skills which helps in Social Equality, Justice.

Characteristics:

1. Education is a continuous learning process which helps in holistic development of a youth and also it helps in getting employment opportunities.
2. Education and Skills both are essential factors for Youths Empowerment that increases

Creative Commons (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0)

This is an open access journal, and articles are distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International Public License, which allows others to remix, tweak, and build upon the work noncommercially, as long as appropriate credit is given and the new creations are licensed under the identical terms.

How to cite this article:

Kasbe, S. P. (2025). Importance of Education and Skill Development: A Need for Better Employment Opportunities. InSight Bulletin: A Multidisciplinary Interlink International Research Journal, 2(10), 118–120. <https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.17621144> their confidence, boost productivity, which leads to better employment opportunities that reflects in enhancement in their quality of life, higher income jobs.

3. Education and Skills both are essential for the competition in market to enhance economy also to create better job opportunities among youths.
4. It also helps in developing more innovations which are crucial for youths Empowerment and for their better employment opportunities.

Role:

1. Role of education is to make Human Resource Development by making individual intellectual and knowledgeable.
2. Role of education is to make strong foundation for youths by providing them skills, making them socially strong by teaching them culture, values of society.
3. It helps in reducing social inequality by creating social and economical equality and making them empower and which up lifts disadvantaged group.
4. Role of skill development and education helps in poverty reduction by creating employment opportunities also that helps in enhancement of their income.
5. It helps in making economic growth and economic productivity that creates innovations and competitiveness which are very much helpful in employment opportunities.

Case Studies:

- Skill India Mission – it provides skills to young populations for their better employment opportunities.
- Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY) – various training programs for different fields, it provides Digital Literacy.

Challenges:

1. It requires Addressing Workforce that needs for the growth and development of the nation.
2. It has huge hurdles of Inadequate Infrastructure which impacts on education and skill development progress.
3. Career counseling important factor as many has adequate knowledge about it in their jobs.
4. Enhancing Graduates' Employability has larger impact on better job orientations and skill development.
5. It needs Education Strategies for better education and skill development.
6. It has issues in Informing Policy Decisions which needs to be address for better employability.
7. It has huge effect on Social and Economic progress which decrease the progress of economy by creating impact on education and skill development.
8. It helps in Reducing Skills Mismatch which creates huge hurdle in enhancing employability and skill development.
9. It's not clear about its Diversity and Inclusion so that needs to be address for better employment and skill development.
10. It creates hurdle in making Long-term Career Success that huge impact on enhancing education and skill development.
11. It makes unstable Global Competitiveness which is not good for growth and employment of the nation as in reduces education and skill development.
12. Many youths has inadequate Academic Contribution that creates unequal distribution of education and skill development which reduces chances in getting better employment.

Conclusion

Education and Skill development plays essential role in shaping the youths of the nation and the economy. The combination of both creates skilled, intellectual employable force. Hence focusing on education and skill training is essential for personal success, economic growth and national building.

Acknowledgment

The author expresses sincere gratitude to the Department of Economics, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar, for providing valuable academic support and encouragement during the preparation of this research paper. Special thanks are extended to research supervisors, faculty members, and peers for their constructive guidance, insightful suggestions, and motivation that enriched the quality of this study.

The author also acknowledges the contribution of various books, journals, government reports, and online resources that served as the foundation for secondary data analysis. Deep appreciation is expressed to all scholars and policymakers whose works have inspired this research on education, skill development, and employment.

Finally, heartfelt thanks are conveyed to all individuals and institutions striving to enhance education and skill training in India, whose continued efforts contribute significantly to national progress and youth empowerment.

Financial Support and Sponsorship

Nil

Conflicts of Interest

The authors declare that there are no conflicts of interest regarding the publication of this paper.

References:

1. Deka, R. J., & Batra, B. (2016). The Range of Skill Enhancement, Job Readiness of Indian Labor Force in Relation to Make in India: An Analysis. International Journal of Engineering Technology, Management and Applied Sciences, 4(4), ISSN 2349-4476, pages 275-282.
2. Jagdish Prasad and D.G.M. Purohit, (2017). Skill Development and innovation, Employability, skills and Entrepreneurship via Make in India: The Study International Journal of Engineering Research and Application, 7(12), ISSN 2248-9622.
3. Joshi, S. (2004). Growth in India's Tertiary sector: effects on jobs and poverty Economic and Political Weekly, 4175- 4178.

4. Thomas, J. J. (2014). "The demographic challenge and job growth in India", Economic and Political Weekly.
5. Mehrotra, S., Parida, J., Sinha, S., & Gandhi, A. (2014). Described job trends in the Indian economy: 1993-94 to 2011-12. Economic and Political Weekly.
6. Datta, S., & Sahu, T. N. (2021). Influence of microfinance on job creation and empowerment of rural women in India. Global Journal of Rural Management.
7. Tewari, D. D. (1998). Opportunities and Potential for Income and Employment Generation of Non-Timber Forest Products (NTFPs): A Case Study of Gujarat, India, Journal of sustainable forestry.
8. Datt & Sundharam, Indian Economy, S.Chand, 71st edition, 2015 Government of India, Economic Survey, 2011.
9. Bhavesh N. Desai and Ashok B. Trivedi (2012) Trends of Economic Growth and job Generation, Indian Economic Journal, Special Issue.
10. Ghosh Jayati (2011) The Difficulties of Achieving Full Employment in the Twenty Fifth Century, Indian Journal of labour Economics, Vol 54 No 1
11. Papola T.S., Jesim Pais and Partha Pratim Sahu (2008) Labour Regulation in Indian Industry: Towards a rational and Equitable Framework, New Delhi, ISID and Bookwell.
12. Papola, T.S (2007), "Work in the development Agenda: Economic and social Strategies", Discussion Paper, DP/170/2007, International Institute for Labour Studies, Geneva.
13. Planning Commission (2001) "Report of the Task Force on Job Opportunities Government of India" Government of India, July 2001.
14. The Government of India, "Economic Survey", the Ministry of Finance, Economic Sector. The Government of India (2005).
15. The Ministry of Labour and Employment, "Director General of Employment and Training", Economic Survey (2000-2001), the Government of India, the Ministry of Finance, Economic Sector.
16. Ministry of Labour and Employment, "Director General of Employment Training", Economic Survey 2010-2011, Government of India, Ministry of Finance Economic Division.
17. Planning Commission (1956). Second Five Year Plan, New Delhi, Government of India. Planning Commission Report 2002-2006.
18. Goldar BN (2003) "Employment in manufacturing and Trade Liberalization: The Employment Paper 2003-2004," Geneva, International Labour Office.
19. Government of India, Central Statistics Organization, Statistics Department, Ministry of Planning, New Delhi, "Labour Guide to Official Statistics (1987).
20. DGE and T, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi, Employment -Educational Pattern of Employees in India: Public Sector (various Years).
21. Bhattacharjea, Aditya (2006) The Industrial Performance and Labour Market Regulation in India: A critical Review of Indian Journal of Labour Economics, vol.49, No. 2. NSSO (Various Years).
22. Surveys on Employment, New Delhi, National Sample Survey Organisation.